Events Creation Team

We are Sabina and Valentina and we are the face behind the Wedding venues in Tuscany screen. We are wedding planners in Tuscany and we're very happy to be. We love our job, listen to your requests, follow them and make suggestions. Make people happy in one of the most important days of their life, their Wedding, is the goal we pursue being responsive, transparent, reliable and careful. We love doing it the best, with the goal of exceeding the expectations of the bride and the groom each time, leaving indelible memories. We love to create different weddings for every occasion, because every bride is different and, for this reason, every time we set off with a new project in which the keywords are to make guests feel at home, carefree and having fun.
